July 2010

CAN YOU BELIEVE. . .

Dennis Kenny, Regional Director

. . . That it's July; that three weeks in Greece and Italy are a month in the past? The time away was great. The people in the two countries were very warm, welcoming and glad we were spending money. Mykonos was my favorite place in Greece and Tuscany was my favorite place overall. We stayed in a Villa outside of Lucca in Northwest Tuscany where we had visited five years earlier. The villa was on a hill surrounded by a vineyard and olive trees. I recommend it! The end of May and the first of June proved to be a good time to be there as there were fewer tourists and it wasn't as hot as in July and August.

I hope your summer will have times of refreshment and rest as well as time in working with students.

People and Places

Nancy Dietsch is leaving the Dayton VA and moving to the San Diego VA. I'm not sure why anyone would want to leave Ohio for San Diego, but our best wishes go with you, Nancy, and blessings in your transition.

David Schwarz and I have been in contact with the Dayton VA administration in an effort to continue the CPE program. There has also been some interest in starting a CPE program at the Cleveland VA.

Carol Green recently announced with great excitement and significant grief her move from the Hospice of the Blue Grass and our region. She begins a new job September 1st at the University of Alabama Birmingham Hospital. She said she will truly miss this region. Although she didn't train in the ECR, she received her full certification after she arrived and the region certainly nurtured her and helped her to "grow up" as a supervisor. Carol has held served on many committees, chaired several and also served as our Board of Reps. Our prayers and best wishes go with you, Carol, as you make the move from Kentucky to Alabama.

Teresa Snorton, Executive Director for ACPE, has just been elected bishop in her denomination. She is the first woman bishop in history! It is a historical event and we congratulate her on this honor. The impact and next steps for ACPE is yet to be determined.

The Foundation for Clinical Pastoral Education (FCPE) Board has ended its contract with MSA, our consulting group. I am very thankful to them for their help in starting the foundation and helping us begin on sound fundraising footing. The Board is evaluating the kind of help we need from this point on. The capital campaign and committees working on it are in full swing.

Supervisors, please encourage anyone involved in SES training to contact Frank Impicliche to request time at one of the workshops, Saturday September 25, at our fall conference. Individuals may present issues and/or material for consultation from other supervisors and colleagues in the region. My experience has been that the success rate of people going through the certification process is directly related to how often they present and how wide the audience for the presentation. Let's help those involved in SES training gain significant experience preparing to meet committees successfully.

Blessings on your summer. Remember to pray for yourself, your students and for each other.

Love Dennis

PASTORAL CONCERNS AND CELEBRATIONS

Yoke Lye Lim Kwong was recently nominated to receive the award of the Director of the month (May and June) at Howard Regional Health System. The award is given to directors and managers who demonstrate an outstanding commitment to the institution through first-rate patient care, compliance, continuous improvement and a commitment to their staff. Congratulations, Yoke Lye!

ECR FALL CONFERENCE SEPTEMBER 24-25, 2010 FORT WAYNE, IN

John Peterson and Joe Viti and the members of the Program Planning Committee invite you to the ECR/ACPE Fall Regional Conference in Fort Wayne, IN. The program and registration form are attached. Some of the highlights are listed below for your information.

The planning committee is pleased to announce that the Rev. Dennis Kenny, D. Min. will be our facilitator as he leads us in a working session regarding, "Organizational Spirituality: The Clash of Personal and Organizational Spiritual Values." Dennis is the Director of Spiritual Care and Healing Services, Cleveland Clinic, and Regional Director of the ECR/ACPE.

Equipping our members with spirituality is vital to both our practice of pastoral care and supervision of CPE students. Spirituality connects with us on variety of levels. Organizations and individuals have spiritual values from which most decisions are made. They are often not identified, are not always compatible and may not match the stated Mission and Values. This often leads to diminished trust in leaders, hardening of ideology and values and lost opportunities for creativity and collaboration are lost. Participants will review opportunities to broaden organizational and personal spiritual values and discuss ways to change organizational and leader communication patterns to align with agreed upon values.

[Highlights of the conference, the agenda and a registration form is included in this newsletter and is posted on the website www.ecracpe.org]

ACCREDITATION NEWS, NOTES AND – DEADLINES FOR 10-YEAR REVIEWS, SITE VISITS, ETC.

FALL CONFERENCE-SEPTEMBER 24-25, 2010

MARRIOTT FORT WAYNE
305 E. Washington Center Rd.
Fort Wayne, IN 46825
260-484-0411
Marriott.com/fwain

John Peterson and Joe Viti and the members of the Program Planning Committee invite you to the ECR/ACPE Fall Regional Conference in Fort Wayne, IN. The program and registration form are attached. Some of the highlights are listed below for your information.

The planning committee is pleased to announce that the Rev. Dennis Kenny, D. Min. will be our facilitator as he leads us in a working session regarding, "Organizational Spirituality: The Clash of Personal and Organizational Spiritual Values." Dennis is the Director of Spiritual Care and Healing Services, Cleveland Clinic, and Regional Director of the ECR/ACPE.

Equipping our members with spirituality is vital to both our practice of pastoral care and supervision of CPE students. Spirituality connects with us on variety of levels. Organizations and individuals have spiritual values from which most decisions are made. They are often not identified, are not always compatible and may not match the stated Mission and Values. This often leads to diminished trust in leaders, hardening of ideology and values and lost opportunities for creativity and collaboration are lost. Participants will review opportunities to broaden organizational and personal spiritual values and discuss ways to change organizational and leader communication patterns to align with agreed upon values.

The conference schedule includes the following highlights:

- The General Business Meeting moderated by Karl Van Harn, Regional Chair. The meeting will include reports from committee chairs, action items and updates from national representatives will provide an update regarding national issues.
- ACPE New Generation Kenya Mission project to do a unit of Supervisory CPE at Presbyterian University of East Africa - D. Calvert Brand [This workshop will be offered again on Saturday morning]
- Systems Centered Theory and CPE Groups - Judy Ragsdale
Systems Centered Theory is a very helpful resource for interpersonal Relations Group (or whatever your center may call the group in which we do support, confrontation and clarification!). Joan Hemenway, former ACPE president and author of, "Inside the Circle: A Historical and Practical Inquiry Concerning Process Groups in CPE" (1996), studied and wrote about Systems Centered Theory as a tool for our small group work. In the Festschrift honoring Joan after her death, a series of essays were compiled addressing the work she did. Several of the chapters included were reprints of articles written by Joan herself. Many of the essays talk about Systems Centered Theory applied to CPE. This workshop will cover material written in the Festschrift, "Expanding the Circle" (Garlid, Zollfrank, Fitchett, eds, 2009) and will talk about the workshop presenter's experiments leading her IPR sessions with residents and SESs using this theory.
- Pastoral Care Retreat in Israel - Marla Coulter-McDonald & Ted Hodge
The National Association of Jewish Chaplains (NAJC) asked the ACPE to invite 10 ACPE Supervisors to be part of a 25-person pastoral care retreat to Israel in May 2-11, 2010. The Pastoral Care Retreat included attending the 3rd Annual Spiritual Care Conference for Professionals in Jerusalem. The Conference organizers included Dvora Corn, Executive Director of Tishkofet, the Pastoral Care organization in Israel. Dvora is the wife of Ben Corn, M.D., who was one of the plenary speakers at the SCC Summit in Orlando in February 2009. Specifically, Tishkofet is interested in exploring the use of the CPE model of education in training its spiritual leaders. ECR

07/12/2010

CPE Supervisors, Marla Coulter-McDonald and Ted Hodge were two of 7 CPE Supervisors who attended and participated in the Retreat. They will be sharing excerpts of the experience as well as pictures and information of the group's overall tour of Israel.

- Peer Review: Although some individuals have peer review more often, ACPE supervisors are required to have a peer review every 5 years (Standards 411.6). Even though there is not a scheduled time on the program for Peer Review individuals may arrange a Peer Review at his/her convenience during free time or anytime during the year. If you plan to have a peer review, you will need to do some written work in preparation. The Peer Review Guidelines and report form may be downloaded from the regional website www.ecracpe.org.

After our social hour and Banquet, Karl Van Harn will serve as moderator as we celebrate the achievements of our colleagues. Following the banquet you will be free to explore Fort Wayne, relax or visit with friends.

The Saturday morning program highlights include:

- Seminars on Supervision (SOS) - Everyone is invited to attend two Seminars on Supervision (SOS) coordinated by Frank S. Impicciche and Mary Q. Brown. Depending on the number of requests received, individuals in supervisory training will have an opportunity to present materials, personal issues or to schedule a mock committee experience with peers and supervisors from the region. These seminars are also a great opportunity for supervisors to share their approach and/or to see others work with those in supervisory education. Individuals interested in scheduling one of the time slots should contact Frank Impicciche (fimpicci@clarian.org) for more information.
- Two of the workshops will be offered again this morning so participants will have another opportunity to attend.

We hope the program is of interest to you and invite you to register for the conference at your earliest convenience. The registration and program information is attached. Please note that some committees will be meeting Wednesday and Thursday, September 22-23, 2010. To reserve your room, contact the Marriott Fort Wayne 260-484-0411 and mention the "Association for Clinical Pastoral Education" for the conference rate. The number of rooms being held for our group is limited. All rooms not booked by August 23 will be released to the public.

If you have any questions about the program or registration, contact Joan Lyke hjoanlyke@yahoo.com (734-239-3423).
